7 Day NSS Special Camp

The NSS unit of our college concluded its 7-day special camp for second-year volunteers on the 31st of December, 2023 at St. George's Higher Secondary School, Mankuzhy. The camp, marked by a series of educational, environmental, and recreational activities, was inaugurated on Christmas day by Nicy Denil, Elamdesham Block member. The camp commenced on a festive note with a Christmas celebration. The inaugural session was further elevated by the presence of Rev.Fr. Prof. Dr. Baby Joseph CMI, who addressed the enthusiastic gathering of volunteers and faculty.

Embodying the spirit of service, the volunteers spent the next five days transforming parts of the school premises into a thriving organic farm and garden. This initiative not only beautified the school grounds but also promoted sustainable agricultural practices among the student community. A major highlight of the camp was the series of educational sessions led by distinguished scholars. Bro. Martin Sojan, Sargavedi Camp Coordinator, took classes on Life Skills, Adv. Alexia Varghese enlightened the students on the nuances of legal awareness, while Ms. Anmary, Research Scholar from St. Thomas College, conducted an engaging workshop on soft skill development, crucial for the holistic growth of students.

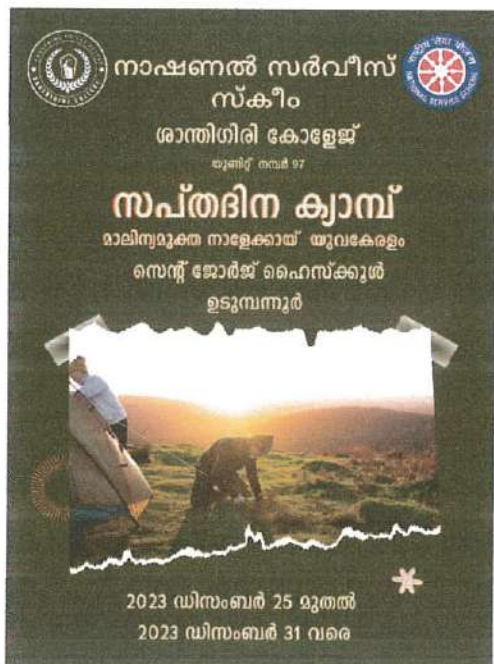

For recreation, the students ventured to Velloor, offering them a much-needed break. The camp was also packed with a variety of cultural events and fun-filled activities, fostering creativity and teamwork.

The camp concluded with a grand fiesta on the final night, featuring a campfire and an array of celebrations, showcasing the talents and camaraderie of the students.

The NSS special camp at St. George’s HSS Mankuzhy was more than an event; it was a holistic experience that combined learning, service, and enjoyment. It not only contributed to the personal growth of the volunteers but also set a benchmark for future NSS initiatives. After participating in such a camp, students achieved several learning outcomes that enhance their personal, academic, and social growth.

TECHNOVATION

TECHNOVATION 4.0, an intercollegiate fest organized by TICSAS and the Department of Computer Science, featured two events: Coding and Treasure Hunt. If the event was organized by students of the college, it aligns with experiential learning, as it provided hands-on experience in planning, coordinating, and executing a large-scale event. By managing logistics, participant engagement, and event execution, students developed practical skills in teamwork, leadership, and problem-solving. Additionally, the coding event enhanced technical knowledge, while the treasure hunt fostered creative thinking and collaborative skills. This immersive experience not only bridged the gap between theoretical knowledge and real-world application but also empowered students with organizational expertise and confidence, preparing them for professional and entrepreneurial challenges.

Alumni Interactions

Our college takes immense pride in its alumni, who have established themselves in prestigious companies worldwide, reflecting the excellence of our institution. As part of the alumni interaction conducted this academic year, several esteemed alumni returned to share their insights and experiences with current students. The session featured Anvin from Idea Elan, Jijo, Jewel, Arathy, Amrutha, and Aswathy from UST, Noel from Applexus Technologies, and Akhila from 6D Technologies. Their inspiring talks provided students with valuable industry perspectives, guidance on career growth, and motivation to strive for excellence. This interaction served as a platform for networking, mentorship, and fostering a strong sense of community between alumni and the institution.
