Cognitive Behaviour Therapy Training Programme for Psychology Students

On July 14, 2023, the Department of Psychology organized a Cognitive Behavioral Therapy (CBT) practice program led by Mr. Bright Jacob, a clinical psychologist, designed to give psychology students practical exposure to CBT techniques and dynamics. This session aimed to provide students with a foundational understanding of CBT in practice and an opportunity to interact with an experienced therapist.The program commenced at 9:45 a.m. with an introductory address by the principal, Fr. Dr. Baby Joseph, who welcomed Mr. Bright Jacob and the attending faculty members, including Ms. Aswathi Murali (Head of the Psychology Department), Ms. Merin Litty John, Ms. Deepa Joseph, and Mr. Shan Baby. . Bright Jacob began by introducing CBT principles, followed by an in-depth explanation of its techniques. A live demonstration was conducted in which one of the students volunteered as a client, allowing others to observe and take notes. This interactive session concluded around 1 p.m., and a student representative gave a vote of thanks. The program provided valuable insights into the practice of CBT, enabling students to gain a better understanding of therapeutic techniques and real-world application.
